

Mr. ANOOP K. SATPATHY
Fellow
M.A., M. Phil (Economics)

Anoop K. Satpathy is working as Fellow at the V. V. Giri National Labour Institute (VVGnLI). He is also coordinator of the North-East Research Centre (NERC) and the Centre for Climate Change and Labour at the VVGnLI. He is an economist by training and his areas of professional interest include informal sector, rural livelihoods, social security and child labour.

During his career at the VVGnLI, he has successfully carried out research projects on contemporary issues such as: Composition and Characteristics of Informal Sector (VVGnLI), Evaluation of National Child Labour Projects (MoLE, GoI), Assessing Social Security Measures and Promoting Effective Participation of Beneficiaries (UNDP), District Employment and Labour Market Assessment (ILO-SAAT) and Agency in Children and Development (IREWOC-PLAN). At present he is undertaking a research project namely, Employment, Income and Food Security: A Study of Rural Households in Odisha (VVGnLI).

He has coordinated a number of national level training programmes on themes such as Quantitative Research Methods, Skill and Entrepreneurship Development, Leadership Development, Social Security and Child Labour. In addition, Shri Satpathy has also coordinated national level workshops/seminars on areas such as: Making Labour Administration More Responsive, Globalisation and Child Work, Restructuring the Unorganized Sector, and Identifying Research Areas on Labour and Employment in the North-eastern Region. He has published several papers and articles in peer reviewed journals and co-edited a book on Child Work and Education. He has undergone training in the areas of Child Migration and Trafficking Employment and Labour Market Policies and Improving Job Quality in Micro-Enterprises in India conducted by International Training Centre of the ILO at Turin. He is a life member of Indian Society of Labour Economics.